

HERITAGE SASKATCHEWAN

Synopsis Board Meeting

July 3 2019

On July 3, 2019, the Board had their regularly scheduled meeting. In addition to ongoing policy monitoring, we had an in-depth discussion of the current landscape on the heritage horizon. We agreed to move ahead on some exciting initiatives. First, we will be taking a closer look at the TRC Calls to Action in our next Board meeting and how Heritage Saskatchewan is working towards honouring these. The next step will be doing the same for the MMIWG Calls to Justice. Another initiative we will be working on is furthering discussions around the Heritage Property Act, we will be creating a committee that will look into the Heritage Property Act and propose recommendations – we welcome any feedback you may have. Lastly, two more ad-hoc committees will be forming, the first is a committee to help understand our position in the upcoming federal election and to develop ideas on what and how we should have our input heard in this important format. The second is a committee to work on Intangible Cultural Heritage and working on mapping Saskatchewan's assets and who is working in this area, it may surprise you!
