“Heritage ... A Story to Tell”

February 25-26, 2011

RAMADA Hotel & Convention Centre
1818 Victoria Avenue, REGINA

Keynote Speaker
Anna M. Willey

President

Total Communications Services Ltd.

The theme of this year's Forum is “Heritage ... A Story to Tell” with a focus on communicating our messages to the people of Saskatchewan. Heritage Saskatchewan's goal for this year's Forum is to create excitement and begin building awareness about heritage in an effort to establish greater understanding of our heritage among Saskatchewan residents. Our Keynote Address on Friday evening will be delivered by Anna M. Willey, ABC, an accredited business communication professional who will share experiences and practises based on more than three decades of projects and strategies involving developing messages to reach audiences locally, nationally and internationally. Don't miss this excellent opportunity to capture some professional insight, practical tips and valuable knowledge of how best to tell your important heritage story.
