Chief Cadmus Delorme
Cowessess First Nation

Chief Cadmus Delorme, a Cree and Saulteaux, is a citizen and currently Chief of the Cowessess First Nation. Mr. Delorme is finalizing his Institute of Corporate Director designation, received a Master of Public Administration from the Johnson-Shoyama Graduate School of Public Policy and a Bachelor of Business Administration along with a Certificate in Hospitality, Tourism and Gaming Entertainment Management from the First Nations University of Canada.

Cody Groat
University of Western Ontario

Cody Groat is an Assistant Professor in the Department of History and Indigenous Studies Program at the University of Western Ontario. He is Kanyen'kehaka and a band member of Six Nations of the Grand River. Cody also serves as the President of the Indigenous Heritage Circle, a national not-for-profit dedicated to the advancement of First Nations, Inuit, and Metis cultural heritage priorities.

Dr. Gerald Pocius
Cape Breton University

Dr. Gerald L. Pocius is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Folklore at Memorial University of Newfoundland. He is currently Senior Research Fellow at Cape Breton University, where he teaches courses in folklore—including an “in-community” course at Wagmatcook First Nation, through CBU’s Unama’ki College. He is a Fellow of both the Royal Society of Canada and the American Folklore Society. He is a recipient of the Marius Barbeau Medal from the Folklore Studies Association of Canada for his lifetime contribution to Canadian folklore studies.
