Provincial Heritage Fair, Thursday, May 24th at Government House in Regina

Regina, SK, May 22, 2018 – Heritage Saskatchewan is excited to announce that the 2018 Provincial Heritage Fair will take place Thursday, May 24th at Government House, 4607 Dewdney Avenue, Regina. The Heritage Fair exhibits, created by 58 students from across Saskatchewan, will be showcased in the Henry Newlands Ballroom with viewing times for the media and public from 2:30pm - 3:30pm (at which time the students will be present); and earlier from 12:30pm - 2:30pm (students will not be present during this timeframe). There are a great variety of exhibits including: Gord Downie, Head-Smashed-In Buffalo Jump, the national anthem, the Dieppe Raid, residential schools, the Canadarms, and much more! Awards will be presented at 3:30pm in Sir Richard Lake Hall, Government House.

Ingrid Cazakoff, CEO, Heritage Saskatchewan, commented: “As schools throughout the province continue to face resource and budget challenges, we are delighted to once again see growing numbers of students and teachers participate in the Heritage Fairs program. Year on year, the quality of the projects always manage to exceed my expectations and the finalists at the 2018 Provincial Heritage Fair are no exception. The students involved in the Heritage Fairs are our future! Their interest in a multitude of topics is encouraging and demonstrates that they are ready to continue to engage as active citizens – now and in the future!”

Heritage Saskatchewan acknowledges the support of SaskCulture Inc., Saskatchewan Lotteries Trust Fund for Sport, Culture and Recreation, SaskMilk, the Saskatchewan Heritage Foundation and Nicor Group.

Join us in celebrating the students’ accomplishments at Regina’s Government House, Thursday, May 24th
