FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2025 Lieutenant Governor's Heritage Award Recipients

Regina, SK – Heritage Saskatchewan is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2025 Lieutenant Governor's Heritage Awards. The award presentations will take place June 18th at Government House in Regina. Her Honour the Honourable Bernadette McIntyre, Lieutenant Governor of Saskatchewan, will present the awards.

The Heritage Awards event is a time to celebrate the remarkable work undertaken throughout the province. The projects being recognised represent a small sample of the rich diversity of heritage, both tangible and intangible, that contribute to the identity, vibrancy and economic life of their communities. They are a testament to the value that individuals and communities place upon documenting, promoting, teaching, and safeguarding heritage for future generations. Heritage Saskatchewan wishes to thank all who contributed submissions for consideration, and more importantly, for inspiring all of us.

The 2025 Award recipients include (name of initiative and to whom the award is being presented):

In the Safeguarding Intangible Cultural Heritage category

- Knife Making Workshops – Grant Schiller Knives, Carrot River
