Curious about what candy tasted like 100 years ago? Got a sweet tooth? Get cooking with local chef Aimee Schulhauser!

Join us at the Civic Museum as we cook up some turn-of-the-century candy using handwritten recipes by Regina's early settler women over 100 years ago. Learn the techniques with Aimee and sample some sugary delights, then take home the recipes and try them out yourself!

Aimee promises an evening of fun, history, and candy!
